

Anha Mehta is a co-leader of La Convivencia Youth Council and she also works as one of the active Youth Outreach and Communications Ambassadors at La Convivencia. She is a rising senior at WWP High School South. Her favorite aspect of this organization thus far is being able to connect with other service-minded individuals through events/social justice conferences, talking about similar experiences and learning about facets of different cultures/practices/etc. Anha is interested in creating a platform for youth to expressively and authentically share their voices and ideas. She also loves psychology and abstract art.
