

Eshe Lovely is a junior at Miss Porter's School in Connecticut. She developed a passion for community service and social justice in middle school and has been involved in multiple projects and events ever since. She joined La Convivencia's Youth Council to connect with other students that want to learn and educate about how our differences can bring us together.

Eshe hopes to encourage others to contribute to a more inclusive and peaceful world. She is very passionate about social issues such as racial inequality, ableism, and religious discrimination. Besides community service, some of Eshe's extracurricular activities include dance, theater, and playing the guitar.
