

Zain Sultan is a co-founder of La Convivencia. Currently, he is a freshman at the University of Michigan studying biomedical engineering. He has spent many hours outside of the classroom to pursue his passion for community service whether it be as a co-founder of La Convivencia, a previous ONE Project Scholar, or a former member of Teens for TASK. He has served as the Youth Ambassador of the West Windsor Human Relations Council for three years and as an Assistant Teacher at the Institute of Islamic Studies for one year. In addition to his community service-related activities, Zain also has a passion for the medical field. He was a volunteer at the Princeton Medical Center as a Care Ambassador and conducts medical research for the University of Michigan Medical School.
